Water

Everyone needs it
Some people don't have enough
Taken for granted
Thanklessly wasted
Thirst it quenches
It can destroy or it can heal
Water
One drop is powerless
A million are nigh unstoppable
Quick to anger
A moment later calm
Water
Uncontrollable
Easily manipulated
The lulling murmur of a trickle
The raging torrent of a rapid
Water
It can give life or it can take it
Impossible to live without
Unrelenting and unrepentant
It can bring fear or it can bring joy
Water
The common need
The thing that makes us all the same
It can bring us together
Or it can tear us apart
